

REPORT ON RELIEF ACTIVITY AFTER THE STORM NO.9-2009 IN NIEM PHO HAMLET – QUANG THO COMMUNE.

Our relief activity is carried out directly through closely collaborating with the local government in Quang Tho commune which is joined in our micro-loan operation. Through that, we have known quite well about the local residents' living condition. As a result, it doesn't take a lot of time for us to conduct this activity. The fund source is transferred from overseas sponsors and the credit interest of FESR.

1. Mrs. Nguyen Thi Gai

She stays alone and leads a hard life for several years. She has two sons who are working in Hue city. They got married and rarely come and see their old mother. Night on Sept 28th, the typhoon No9 started to hit the coast. Water is at high level and caused to flood everywhere. So, she had to find a shelter in neighbour's house. At that night, her dilapidated house couldn't stand the damage of the typhoon and quickly collapsed. When receiving VND500,000 from us, she is moved to tears by our kind help and express her gratitude to us for not having ignored her difficult situation.

2. Mrs. Nguyen thi Thiet

She is over 80 years old and a single woman. She is now living with her younger sister who is about 78 years old. Due to their hard living condition, they sometimes ask for help from their kind neighbours. This is one of family households using clean water through our fund.

3. Mrs. Nguyen Thi Phuc

She is now looking after her husband's brother who has spent three months in bed after a serious accident. The poor widow, day by day, is struggling herself with many difficulties and challenges in her life ahead.

4. Mr. Le Ngui

Mr. Ngui, 55 years old, lost his parents as a child. So, he easily suffers from manic depression. Since then, his aunt has brought him up. Poverty is an obstacle to his marriage, therefore, he is still lonely so far.

5. Mrs. Le Thi Hue:

Mrs. Hue stays alone in a house offered by the provincial Youth businessmen Association. She said that the association promised to give 20 million dong, but 5 million dong left hasn't been transferred yet. Her household hasn't been used clean water. The amount of VND200,000 will help her to overcome the difficulties at this moment.

6. Mrs. Nguyen Thi Keo

She is living alone in a small house. This household also uses clean water through FESR's fund. But for natural disaster, she could have made her ends meet with the help of her neighbours. Unfortunately, everyone is now facing difficulties, this money is extremely meaningful at this time, helping her stand up after the typhoon

7. Mr. Le Quan

He used to be a strong and diligent man. Unluckily, he has been unable to work after a fatal stroke. Everything seems to put on his wife's shoulders, making their life more and more difficult. The amount of VND 200,000 will be a great support for her to overcome difficulties

8. Mrs. Tran Thi Ngoan

She is 73 years old, everyday, she has vegetables at the garden for meals. A few days ago, she unluckily fell down. She has stayed in bed since the accident. She has to ask her younger sister who is 70 years old and her neighbours for help. They were very glad to receive this money from us.

9. Mrs. Tran Thi Chau – over 80 years old, single

She is now living with her daughter and her grandchild. They lead a very difficult life. Her daughter has to look after her mother. Besides, she wishes to send her child to school. This is one of households which use clean water through FESR's fund. That helps her daughter not to spend a lot of money buying clean water for use.

10. Mr. Nguyen Ty

He used to be a strong man. And he was considered the main labour and man-headed family before. But an unlucky thing happened to him, he fell down and stayed in bed from that. Her wife takes care of him in the daily meals and the habit of hygien.

11. Mrs. Tran Thi Ang

Although she is over 80 years old, she manages to earn her living on her own. The storm comes, water level raised highly leading to flood everywhere. She is moved to a safer shelter by her neighbors. The flood made all furnitures at her house wet and she has to ask for help from her kind neighbours. The amount of VND200,000 is really meaningful to her in this difficult moment

12. Mrs. Nguyen Thi Xeng

Despite her old age, she manages to earn her living. Her main income from vegetables at her garden helps to cover her everyday needs. However, the flood made all kinds of vegetables dead. The amount of VND200,000 is really a great support to her in this difficult time. This is also one of household used water supply system from FESR's fund.

13. Mrs. Nguyen Thi Hieu

This is household who their roof and kitchen were collapsed by 9th of storm. She has 2 children but all of them work far from their house. Due her husband was handicapped so she takes responsibility of housework. Due to hard life, she has no enough money to repair the kitchen. She has to cook outside everyday. If it rains, it will be difficult for her to cook. Therefore, the amount of VND 200,000 received from us will help to repair the kitchen room

14. Mrs. NguyenThi Non

Her family suffer the losses in the past flood. The typhoon blew up the roof of pigsty. She has a son who is often ill. So she is in charge of many things in the family. She not only earn more income from doing husbandry but also borrow money from other people. Through that, she invests it in animal raising to supplement the income in the family. However, the typhoon causes big damages to her business. The amount of money form us can't compensate for the dammages caused by the typhoon but it is also a little support to her to overcome difficulties in life.

15. Mrs Le Thi Cho

When we pay a visit to her house to give her the money for this activity, she said” it is very kind of you. We haven’t eaten anything for several days. We have to ask for help from help of our kind neighbour. The local residents living in flooded area like us always prepair for reserve food in case the typhoon hits to Hue’s coast. But obviously, due to hard life, we have no reserve food. This household also use clean water supply from our fund.

16. Mrs. Nguyen Thi Suu

She stays alone and she is one of poor households in the commune. She emotionally says: “ when the storm comes, we are afraid that it will blow over my small house. If there is no help of the neighbours, I think that it is difficult to overcome the obstacles. I feel very happy and express my gratitude to FESR’s help

17. Mrs. Nguyen Thi Huyen

This is another poor household in Niem Pho. Her children have gone far from their house for working. Until now, there has been no news from children. So, she had to face with challenges in the flood by herself. The amount of this money will be supplemented to encourage her to overcome difficulties in life.

18. Mrs. Nguyen Thi Hiet

Living in a small and simple house which it seems not to suffer from the ravage of the storm. Located in a flooded area, her house was isolated by her neighbours. Due to hard living condition, she works for rent to earn her living. When we visited her house, she had gone. So, we left her brother the amount of money. We do hope that this money will be useful to her in this difficult time.

19. Mrs. Pham Thi Eo

At the age of 80, she has got dim eyes and hunchback. She has only daughter who has worked far from home. So, she strikes to make a living by screening rice for some rice – mills in the locality. The past typhoon damaged her house quite heavily. She feels very happy to receive the money from us. Although the money is not worth too much, it encourages her to overcome her hard life.

20. Mrs. Nguyen Thi Met and Mrs. Nguyen Thi Vuong

Both of them used to be separated from their houses before. But since Mrs. Met became weaker, Mrs. Vuong has to share their house in order that she can look after her younger sister better. Despite their old age, they earn their living by themselves. The main income from selling vegetables is not enough for Mrs. Vuong to bring her sister up. She has to offer for help from their neighbours. Witnessing their hard life, we decided to give them the amount of VND400,000. She is thrilled to receive this money from us because she thinks that it will be very useful for them to do many necessary things in life.
